

Bases

- Fundación Botín announces its new call for projects to award 8 Visual Arts Grants meant to support individual art projects that may consist of training (academic or not), research (non academic), and production. Artists of any nationality may apply. Two of these grants will be given in priority to Spanish artists under the age of 30 who have a concrete project of relocating abroad to carry out their project (training, research and production).
- Grants are awarded to individual artists (or established groups of artists) and are not transferable. They cannot be used for any other purpose than the carrying out of the project outlined in the grant application.
- Applicants must demonstrate that the project they apply for is not funded by another institution, unless it is clearly stated that those funds are applied to a specific aspect of the project that this grant will not cover.

1. DURATION

- Grants are given to cover a period of nine months. Artists who have relocated to a country other than the one of their permanent residence may apply for an extension, which they will need to present in the subsequent call for projects.

2. ENDOWMENT

- The total amount of the grant is €. 23.000. Spanish income tax law is applicable and the corresponding amount will be automatically deducted unless artists provide a valid certificate of tax residency in another country. Grantees are responsible for the settlement of any related taxes in their country of fiscal residence.
- Grant money can be used freely by the grantee (for living expenses, travel, equipment rental or purchase, and any other related production or training costs) provided expenses are related to the project they received the grant for.
- Travel insurance will be provided to grantees relocating to another country during the course of the grant period.
- Payment schedule: 45% at the beginning of the grant period; 25% at the end of the first trimester; 25% at the end of the second trimester; 5% paid upon the remittance of a final report.

3. TERMS

- The grant is valid for the grant period only. It cannot be interrupted, and the grant period must start before the end of 2017.
- Grantees will be notified in writing once their application has been approved. They must confirm in writing that they accept the grant before any payment can be made.

4. LIABILITY

- Grantees must credit Fundación Botín in any communication, publication, or public program related to the granted project.
- Should the grantee decide to produce a publication related to the granted project, Fundación Botín reserves the right of first refusal to publish it; in the event Fundación decides to waive this right, the grantee will need to credit Fundación Botín as the funder of the related project.
- During the course of the grant period, Fundación Botín reserves the right to assess the progress and development of the granted project.
- The artist agrees to send Fundación Botín a report which, referring to the aims outlined in the application, provides a final evaluation of the project and outlines the way the grant has been used, together with visual documentation of the works executed (deadline: November 30th, 2018). This will conclude the grant cycle and is the condition to execute the final payment of the grant (5% of the total amount).
- The exhibition programme of the Fundación Botín opens every year with "Itinerarios", an exhibition that showcases the works produced during the course of the grant period. A catalogue is published on the occasion of the exhibition. Grantees are requested to facilitate to Fundación Botín the loan of works to be exhibited as well as instructions to present the work, and all the documentation that may be required for the exhibition and the publication. They must also agree to not take part in any show organized in the region of Cantabria before this exhibition takes place.

- Fundación Botín's Artistic Committee may elect to acquire work by the grantees. Such acquisition may occur during or after the exhibition. It is expected that the acquisition price takes into consideration the financial support Fundación Botín has provided to the grantee.
- Failure to comply with the rules outlined here may result in Fundación Botín taking action as it sees fit.

5. APPLICATION

- Applicants will need to register by filling a form online, at: <http://www.fundacionbotin.org>
- All applications will need to be submitted in print via regular mail. Please include a printed copy of the web registration form along with the remaining documentation; please ensure that the mention BECA DE ARTES PLASTICAS appears clearly on the envelope.
